

Recent Events in World of Aviation as Caught by the Photographers

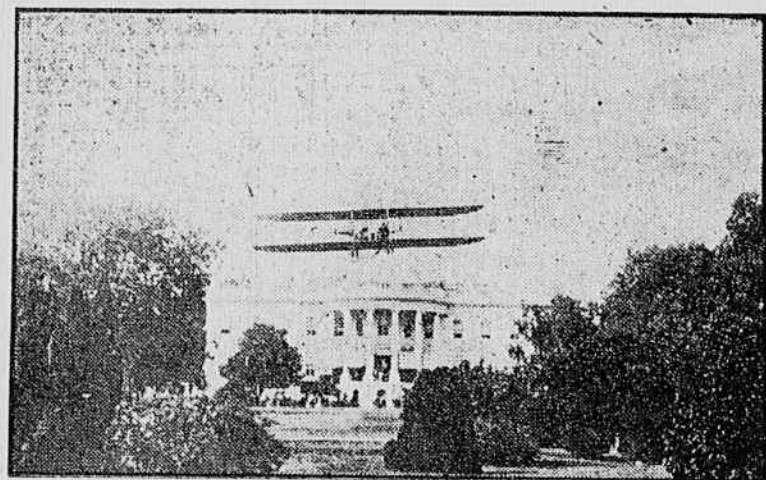

Arrival of Aviator Harry N. Atwood in Chicago from St. Louis.

Beaumont winning the London Daily Mail's $50,000 Prize for completing the recent "Around Britain" race in the shortest time.

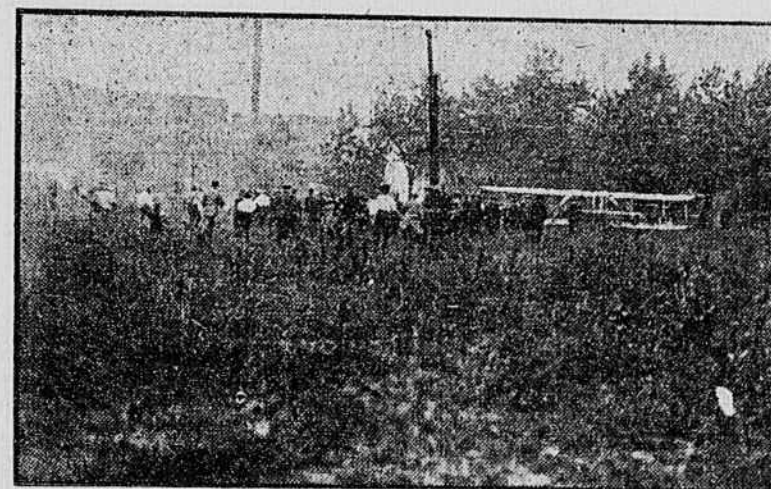

Fatal accident to Aviator William R. Badger in Chicago, August 15.

Harry N. Atwood putting the finishing touch to his great Boston-to-Washington flight by paying a visit to the President at the White House.

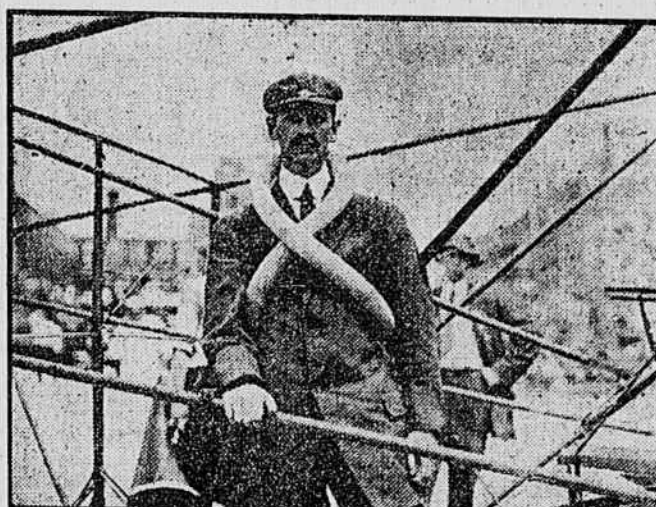

Atwood after his arrival at Castleton, N. Y.

Harry Atwood at the minute of landing on Governor's Island.

Boats trying to rescue Aviator St. Croix Johnstone from the wreck of the aeroplane with which he fell into Lake Michigan August 15.

Glenn H. Curtiss, wearing the life preserver intended to serve him in water.

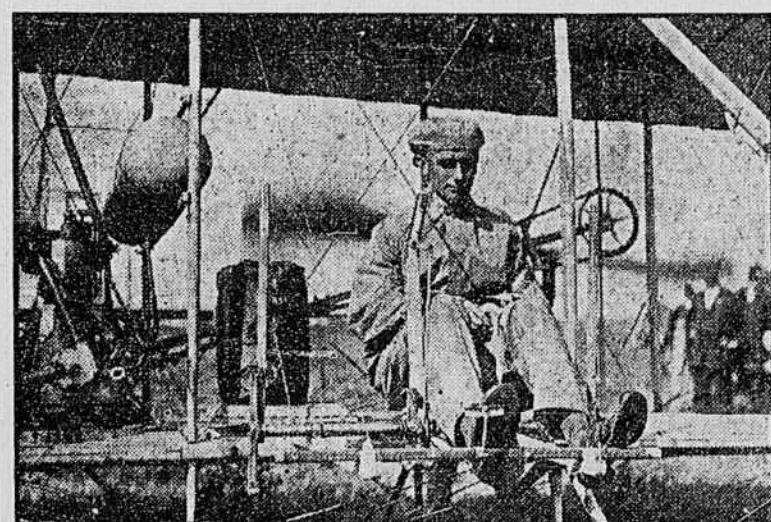

ST. CROIX JOHNSTONE, the American aviator, who broke the American record for sustained flight.

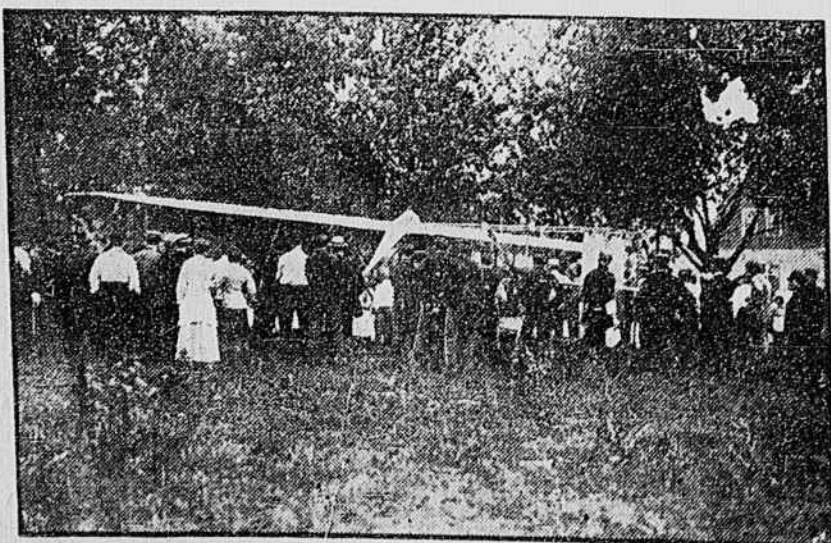

Crowds watching Harry Atwood repair the engine of his machine at Castleton, N. Y.

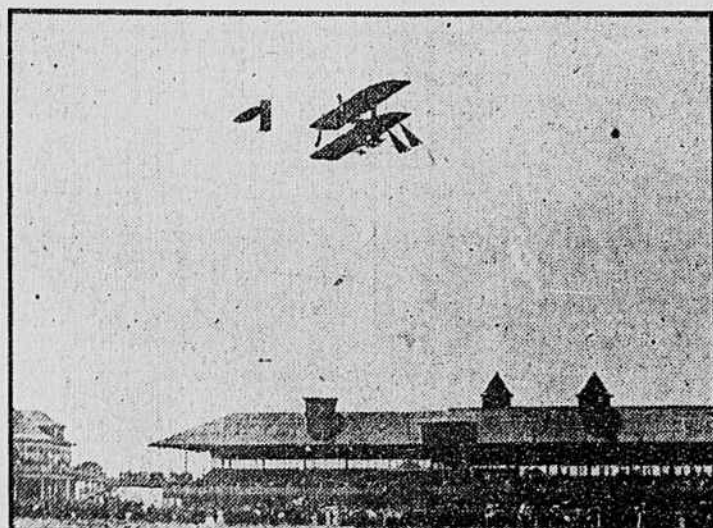

Glenn H. Curtiss's hydro-aeroplane, now undergoing tests on and near Lake Keuka, N. Y.

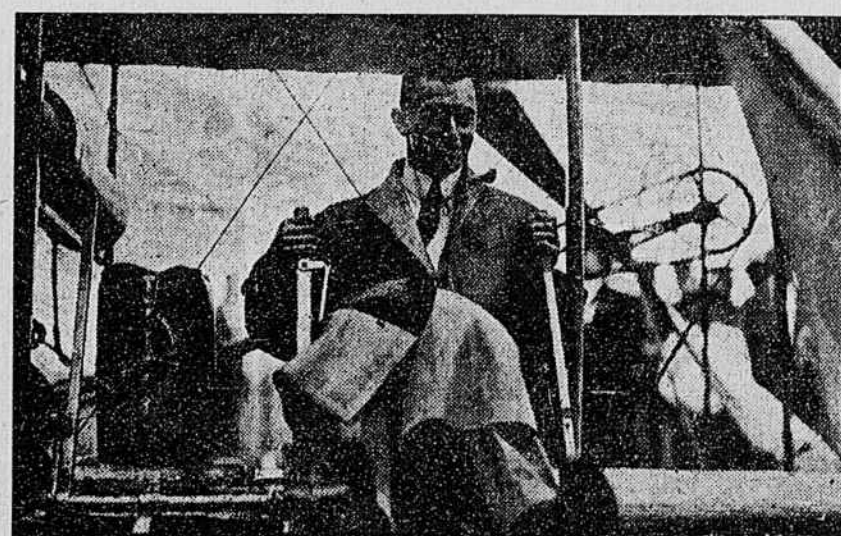

HARRY N. ATWOOD, Who made record aeroplane flight from St. Louis to New York.

Crowd greeting Atwood on his arrival at Governor's Island.

Harry N. Atwood nearing the end of his great cross-country flight.
(Copyright, 1911, by American Press Association.)

Harry Atwood seated in aeroplane just after descending to Governor's Island.